PROFILE

Sri Laxmi Steel Industries is one of the respected manufacturers of Kitchen Sinks. It is a 12 Year old company located at Morbi, Gujarat in India. In the past years the company has spread its market all across India & abroad and has successfully established its name.

The company is headed by a group of experienced and visionary businessmen who believe in delivering quality products to the customer. The Management and the execution both work in harmony to manufacture as well as distribute products so as to make the buying experience and functionality of the product acceptable to the consumers.

VISION

We visualize becoming the most preferred manufacturer for Kitchen Sinks. We will innovate and develop products that deliver value.

QUALITY

The company has always had an inclination for providing quality. Starting from the top management to the lowest of workers, the attitude of quality has been embedded in the culture. This reflects in the product, its packaging and the way it reaches the consumer. It flows into the functionality of the products that last for years and serve the customer's need in the best manner.

FUTURE

In alignment with the company vision, we wish to continuously improve quality of products as well as systems. We will also be maintaining our progress of developing and supplying innovative products in the Kitchen Sinks Products segment.
